Commodore's Message:

Oh my gosh it's September –How did that happen!

Don and I had a very busy, fun and full of beautiful grandchildren summer. Hope you all had enjoyable summers as well.

Fall will be here before we know it and many of us that left the island for the summer will be coming back to paradise and MBYC will be ready with boat trips, parties, games, good friends and more.

Start fall off on September 25th with the final Dine Around, hosted by Patti and Larry Bielawski. They are changing things up a little and hosting a lunch at Capital Grill, see the flier below.

October 15th get your boat ready for a trip to Naples and lunch at 360 Market organized by Barry and Claudette Gelfand. This is sure to be fun day.

On November 2nd the Boating organizations on Marco will be getting together at Rose Marine to participate in a 'Wear It' campaign for the beginning of the Marco Island Boating Season. This is an occasion where we encourage our members to gather in life vests for a photo to remind boaters to wear these important devices to improve boat safety around Marco Island's waters.

Be sure to put November 5th on your calendar for the Welcome back Party and Annual Meeting at Bistro Soliel.

Paul Krueger and his Day Fleet Committee have put together a great calendar of events for this Fall and the upcoming Season. MBYC is lucky to have such a creative and enthusiastic group of people making sure we all have a fun filled time on the water. See the flier below.

All of the long cruises for the upcoming season have been set by Fleet Captains Brent Cook and Mike Brown and their team. See the flier below and mark your calendars.

A big thank you goes out to Judy and Larry Sacher, Marcia and Alex Orsolini and Gayle and Pat Thawley for hosting Dine Arounds this summer. I am sorry to have missed them but I heard they were a lot of fun. Wisconsin has been great but I hate missing anything fun on Marco.

Our board has taken the summer months off and will meet again on October 8th, 10:00 at Omaha Bank.

Be sure to watch your emails for membership renewal information in September.

I am looking forward to seeing you all soon.

Summer Dine-A-Rounds

Thanks to the sponsors of this summer's Dine-A-Round series for the year-round Marco members.

On June 18th the Sachers kicked the season off returning us to the good old days of "Dine and Dash", but with a twist. Judy and Larry Sacher hosted the June "dine-a-round" for MBYC; instead of dining and then dashing, the pre-dinner activities involved a brief gathering at the Sacher's house where teams were formed with a blind draw of playing cards, making up teams of 4 or 5, separating significant others. Drivers from each team were chosen and once the logistics were explained, including the instruction that as a team reached its destination, a picture of the team showing their location was to be texted to the Sachers. The teams then departed with a bag-full of clues that would lead each team to various locations around Marco. Each participant was told to bring 4 one-dollar bills, in exchange for which some of the destinations would give them another clue. Among the participating Marco Island businesses: Marco Movies, Philly Grille, Sweet Annies, Marco Golf and Garden. Other locations included Veterans Community Park and one of the local supermarkets where the participants were required to spell out Marco Bay Yacht Club using items from the market's shelves or produce areas. The final clue led the teams to a phone number to call, the person answering the phone would advise them where dinner was being served. The Tokyo Inn did a great job accommodating everyone, and the team-provided pictures were displayed in a continuous loop while dinner was served.

Then, on June 11 the Orsolinis followed up with a delightful evening at Ciao Bella. Marcia reported that 24 members gathered for (in this writer's opinion) the best Italian food on our Island. The food, private side dining area, service and camaraderie made for a most pleasant evening. Alan Sandlin provided us with a blessing before the meal and Marcia followed with what sounded like it was going to be a rather irreverent toast. "Here's to swearing, lying, drinking and stealing; swearing loyalty to your country, lying to save the life of a friend, drinking with old friends and new, and stealing the hearts of the people you love."

See you at the September Dine-A-Round at the Capital Grill. Time to get signed up.

Summer Madness

A tree in the forest falls when no one is there. Does it make a sound? If there are no Monday Madness pictures did it actually happen? I managed to find these images of the May and June Madness so we are certain that they occurred. We were pleased to welcome Glen and Teresa Perkins and Steve and Linda Miner at the June Madness. Sometimes we have a better opportunity to make a lasting bond when attendance is smaller and we can spend more time visiting. Looking forward to seeing you at September Monday Madness.
